

Where and when should I vote?

Find your polling place: www.votespa.com

Poll open/closing times: 7am – 8pm. As long as you're in line by 8pm, you can still vote.

Am I registered?

To check your status or to register visit www.votespa.com.

Do I need to show ID?

No, unless: it's your first time voting in your current district. List of acceptable forms of Photo ID: PA driver's license or PennDot ID card, ID issued by any Commonwealth agency, ID issued by the U.S. Government, U.S. passport, U.S. Armed Forces ID, Student ID, Employer ID. Your ID must be valid and not expired. Qualifying non-photo IDs include: a non-photo ID issued by state or federal government, a current utility bill, a firearm permit, a current bank statement, a current paycheck, or a current government check. Your non-photo ID must include your name and current address.

Can someone else help me vote?

Yes, if any of the following affect your ability to vote: (1) disability; (2) language barrier; or (3) literacy or difficulty reading.

Anyone can help you, except: (1) your employer;(2) your union representative; (3) the Judge of Elections.

I'm at the wrong polling place. What should I do?

You must go to your correct polling place to vote. However, if you insist you are eligible to vote at that polling place, you may vote using a provisional ballot.

I am at the right polling place but my name isn't in the poll book. Can I still vote?

Yes, your poll workers must provide you with a provisional ballot.

The voting machines at my precinct are broken. Can I still vote?

Yes, your poll workers must provide emergency paper ballots.

Can I take a ballot selfie?

Yes, BUT, you should be careful to not disclose any other voter's ballot and it is recommended that you wait until after you leave the polling place to post photos of your ballot selfie.

Can I bring my gun to the polls?

If you lawfully possess it, then yes, unless your polling place is: (1) a school; (2) a courthouse; (3) a place where PA law prohibits firearms; or (4) inside a private property that forbids them.

Regardless, it is illegal to aggressively display the firearm in a way that intimidates other voters.

Can I bring campaign materials inside my polling place or booth?

Yes, if they help you choose who to vote for, but you cannot leave them behind.

Can I wear campaign gear while voting?

Yes, as long as you are not an election official or poll watcher.

Who is allowed inside the polling place?

Only voters, people assisting voters, election officials, constables, poll watchers with valid certificates, and duly appointed overseers.

Otherwise, campaign workers are not allowed inside the polling place unless voting.

Police are only allowed inside if: they are voting; the polling place is in the same building as a police station; or they have been officially summoned to address a situation at the polls.

Someone is trying to intimidate me. What can I do?

That is illegal. Report them immediately to your County Board of Elections. If you feel unsafe, call 911 immediately.

Someone is challenging my right to vote. What can I do?

Your right to vote can be challenged, but only based on identity or place of residence. If someone will vouch for you, you can still vote on the machine. If not, you can still vote using a provisional ballot.

Can I vote by mail?

YES, YOU ARE ENCOURAGED TO VOTE BY MAIL

Any qualified voter may apply for a mail-in ballot. You do not have to provide a reason for requesting one. It's your choice whether to vote in-person or vote by mail.

Apply online here

(<http://votespa.com/ApplyMailBallot>), by mail, or in-person at your county election office. Importantly, the application must be received before 5:00pm on the Tuesday before the election.

Your ballot must be returned to your County Election Office by 8:00pm on election day for your vote to be counted.
